

Dear Supplier:

Thank you for your interest in the Boeing KC-7A7 USAF Tanker Program. Boeing has a long tradition of aerospace leadership and innovation. We continue to expand our product lines and services to meet emerging customer needs.

For consideration as a potential KC-7A7 supplier, please register your company in our Boeing SupplierGATEWAY database by completing the online supplier introduction profile with details of your company and what it has to offer. This enterprise wide database is used by Boeing Supplier Management, Engineering and other organizations to search for suppliers whose capabilities match potential bid opportunities. To expedite our search for potential USAF Tanker supplier candidates, please enter key words "KC-X" in the capability field.
