

Boeing Defense, Space & Security
P.O. Box 516
St. Louis, MO 63166
www.boeing.com

TIMOTHY (TIM) S. NORGART

Director, New Business Development
Airborne Battle Management

Tim Norgart is the director of New Business Development for Boeing's Airborne Battle Management division. He is responsible for development, integration and implementation of customer and business strategies for a variety of programs, including the P-8A Poseidon, 737 Airborne Early Warning & Control, and Airborne Warning Systems.

In addition to his other responsibilities, Norgart oversees advanced anti-submarine warfare and new product development organizations.

Prior to this, Norgart was the director of Business Development for the P-8A after helping to lead the team effort to win the Multi-mission Maritime Aircraft competition. He joined the company in January 2001 after 25 distinguished years of service with the U.S. Navy.

Norgart joined the Navy in 1975 after completing Naval Flight Officer (NFO) training in May 1977. During his tour he qualified as Patrol Plane Tactical Coordinator (TACCO), Mission Commander and Instructor TACCO in the P-3C aircraft. Norgart also served as an NFO instructor. In June 1990, Norgart reported to Patrol Squadron 40 as Executive Officer and in May 1992 assumed Command of the "Fighting Marlins" of VP-40. In July 1993, Norgart arrived at the Bureau of Naval Personnel, where he served as both the Deputy Director and the Director of the Aviation Distribution Division. From there, in January 1996, he was assigned as the Chief, Personnel Services Division, and Directorate for Manpower and Personnel, the Joint Staff.

In July 1998, Norgart assumed Command of Patrol and Reconnaissance Wing 10 in Whidbey Island. The four Wing 10 Squadrons and their personnel were deployed throughout the world, including participation in combat operations in Kosovo. He was also responsible for transitioning his squadrons to the Anti-Surface Warfare Improvement Program (AIP) upgrade to the P-3C and the Sensor Station Improvement Program (SSIP) upgrade to the EP-3.

A highly decorated veteran, Norgart retired from the Navy on Aug.1, 2000. His numerous awards include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal, Navy Commendation Medal, and the Meritorious Unit Commendation.

Norgart holds a bachelor's degree in political science from Seattle University.

#

Contact:

Kimberlee Beers
Airborne Battle Management Communications
425-478-1869
kimberlee.l.beers@boeing.com

January 2010