

Supply Chain Management

Boeing Business Intern Program

	Responsibilities	Preferred Majors	Available Sites
Procurement Agent	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop supply chain strategies. Negotiate and execute supplier contracts. Manage supplier performance and collaborative relationships. Assess supplier capability and capacity. Identify and mitigate supply chain risks. 	Supply Chain, Business, Industrial Engineering	All sites
Procurement Analyst	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop, analyze, and deploy supply chain metrics. Provide supplier contracting management and documentation support. Distribute and manage supplier and Boeing technical data. 	Supply Chain, Business, Industrial Engineering	Seattle area, St. Louis, Charleston
Supply Chain Analyst	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Forecast, manage, and optimize inventory. Order and schedule parts, products, services, and data. Receive, store, ship, and distribute inventory. 	Supply Chain, Business, Industrial Engineering	Seattle area, St. Louis, Charleston
Supply Chain Logistics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Manage the Boeing global transportation and logistics infrastructure. Maintain and manage collaborative relationships with transportation regulatory agencies, organizations, and service providers. 	Supply Chain, Business, Industrial Engineering	Seattle area, Southern California, St. Louis
Supplier Quality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Conduct supplier process and product compliance assessments. Educate and coach suppliers and internal organizations on quality system, regulatory compliance, and company quality initiatives. 	Supply Chain, Industrial Engineering, Information Systems	Seattle area