

Boeing Business Intern Program—Facilities & Asset Management

Facilities & Asset Management Internships	Responsibilities	Preferred Majors
Project Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Receive, validate, and log customer requests for facilities services such as construction, rearrangements, moves, and asset acquisition. Meet with customers, evaluate requests, provide tactical plans, define requirements, and identify design options. Obtain formal facilities designs, coordinate with affected parties, and create work packages that provide documentation and cost relative to project implementation. 	Business; Facilities Management, Project Management; Structural or Civil Engineering; Construction Management; Architecture
Facilities Planner	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Compile data from headcount projections and business plans to enable forecasting. Develop multiple complex scopes, schedules, and budgets and provide status reviews. Develop and communicate proposals to stakeholders. Manage real property assets and site cost allocations. Apply current real estate leasing and development principles, concepts, practices, and standards. 	Facilities Management; Project Management; Economics; Finance; Business; Architecture; Real Estate; Engineering Management; Industrial Engineering
Facilities Analyst	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Receive and respond to internal and external customer requests for services or goods related to buildings, equipment, and systems. Perform studies and conduct research to determine the feasibility, viability, and capability of a program or project. Collect and log data from various systems to perform analysis on buildings, equipment, systems, processes, and procedures to make recommendations and implement improvements. 	Economics; Finance; Business; Facilities Management; Sustainability; Management Information Systems; Data Analytics; Industrial Technology; Technical or Vocational Education
Construction Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Administer contractor activities and evaluate contractor proposals to ensure compliance with standard operating procedures. Monitor and coordinate project implementation activities to ensure cost, schedule, and regulatory requirements are met. Ensure compliance with Boeing and regulatory standards. 	Construction Management; Project Management; Structural Engineering; Civil Engineering; Architecture; Engineering Management