Southeast Asia: 2024 Grantmaking Guidelines

Boeing maintains a deep and enduring commitment to global community engagement. Our grants support programs that inspire our future, empower our heroes and strengthen the communities we call home. The company’s charitable partnerships and contributions are strategic in focus, promote societal growth, and drive positive and lasting change in the communities where we have a presence.

How To Be Considered for a Grant

Boeing grantmaking is by invitation only. All organizations must be invited to submit a proposal.

1. Read the Boeing Southeast Asia grant objectives to determine if your request aligns to either of the following pillars:
   - Our Future
   - Our Heroes
   - Our Homes

2. Determine that your organization is eligible for support. Review the grants eligibility and exclusion guidelines.

3. Contact your local community investor to discuss a proposed project.

4. If your community investor determines that your project aligns with Boeing’s local strategies, you may be invited to submit either a letter of intent (LOI) or a full grant application.

5. If you are invited to submit an LOI, it will be evaluated for alignment, viability, measurable outcomes and broad impact. Should your LOI merit further interest, you will be invited to submit a full grant proposal.

Southeast Asia: 2024 Grantmaking Guidelines

Boeing’s Focus in Southeast Asia

Boeing’s relationship with Southeast Asia began in the late 1940s with the provision of commercial airplanes to fledgling national airlines. Today, Boeing’s Southeast Asia activities have grown to encompass partnerships in commercial aviation, defense, space, services, and research and technology. Boeing maintains corporate offices in both Singapore, Indonesia, Vietnam and Malaysia that provide support to customers throughout the region.

Across the globe, good corporate citizenship is a core value of The Boeing Company and integral to the way its business is conducted. Giving back to the communities in which we live and work is essential, and in Southeast Asia, this is no exception. Boeing Southeast Asia and its subsidiaries provide grants to match Boeing’s community investment strategies Our Future: Tomorrow’s Innovators, Our Heroes: Veterans and Families and Our Homes: Dynamic Communities.

Goal:
Create cradle-to-career pathways to strengthen and diversify the pipeline of skilled workers entering today’s dynamic labor market. Advance 21st-century skills such as knowledge acquisition, creativity, innovation, critical thinking, problem solving, collaboration, media and technology literacy, self-direction and adaptability.

Concentration:
- Early Learning: Increase the number of kindergartners who are ready for school, particularly in mathematics.
- Primary and Middle School: Generate interest and sustained participation in science, technology, engineering and mathematics (STEM) disciplines through hands-on, experiential learning.
- High School: Graduate more students who are ready to enter STEM-related or other high-demand careers and/or STEM-focused postsecondary education.
- Workforce Preparation: Prepare veterans, under skilled adults and young adults for living-wage jobs in high-demand sectors.

Boeing makes investments to advance the work of organizations focused on 21st-century skills development in Indonesia, Malaysia, the Philippines, Singapore, Thailand and Vietnam.

Other Types of Support from Boeing

In Southeast Asia, we have the opportunity to support organizations in the following ways:

Employee Volunteering: We look for ways that our employees can work with our community partners. If you have an opportunity that aligns to our strategy please contact our local community investor.

Boeing Facility Visits: Limited visits to Boeing facilities in conjunction with educational and/or career-pathway projects may be considered.

In-Kind Donations: Boeing may provide in-kind donations. On a very limited basis, Boeing donates auction items to organizations who have demonstrated they align to our local strategies.

Business-Related Sponsorships: Boeing sponsors select major events, organizations and projects that resonate with our business and brand strategies to enhance Boeing brand presence and visibility with our customers, key stakeholders, employees and the communities where we live, work and do business around the world. For information and an application, please visit our Sponsorships page.

Event Sponsorships to Charitable Galas, Fundraisers and Benefits: The Boeing Company will support nonprofit organizations through sponsoring a fundraising event or community program. The company supports organizations that strongly align with our Tomorrow’s Innovators and Dynamic Communities local strategies; are represented on the board of directors by a Boeing executive; and/or align with Boeing’s business goals. Please email your local contact at least six months prior to the event.

Contact for all community-related matters: Halina Ibrahim, Boeing Global Engagement, halina.ibrahim@boeing.com

Before making contact, please determine that your organization meets eligibility; review the grants eligibility and exclusion guidelines. We do not make capital campaign grants.
