

EVERGREEN AVIATION TECHNOLOGIES

2022
Supplier of the Year

Award: Pathfinder

Through the use of new technologies and/or processes, the supplier created substantial new value within the Boeing Supply Chain.

Q: What does it mean to be recognized as a Supplier of the Year?

A: One person can't accomplish everything but a team can. Thank you to the Boeing team for affirming our efforts. We are grateful to Boeing for their support and assistance along the way.

Q: How do you inspire your employees?

A: Layered responsibility: every employee does their best to meet their responsibilities. At every stage of every program - from design and manufacturing to sales and marketing, and everything else - we all have a responsibility. Each of us, including our supplier partners, will understand our individual responsibilities and be accountable for the work we do.

Q: How did your company get started?

A: Evergreen Group began with the formation of Evergreen Marine Corp. by Dr. Y.F. Chang on Sept. 1, 1968. During its history, the Evergreen Group has diversified its business interests with land and air transportation operations. Evergreen Aviation Technologies Corporation consistently delivers exceptional aircraft maintenance and manufacturing services solutions to airline partners and customers.
