Award: Outstanding Performance – Boeing Global Services

Sustaining a high level of performance in support of key Boeing Global Services supply chain initiatives.

Q: What does it mean to be recognized as a Supplier of the Year?

A: As a long-term partner with Boeing, we are humbled and honored to receive this award. Being recognized as Supplier of the Year brings a tremendous sense of pride to our employees who are committed to delivering the highest quality products and solutions to Boeing and the broader aerospace community.

Q: How did your company get started?

A: C.E. Machine was started by Charlie Eck (C.E.) in 1975 and was later purchased in 2003 by his nephew Brian Eck who is the current owner and president of the company. This small family-owned business which had 20 employees in 2003 has steadily grown to 115 employees .

Q: How does your team exemplify excellence?

A: Quality, Delivery and Communication. We take immense pride in hitting our customers' quality and delivery metrics and providing them with honest and forthright communication every step of the way. We set monthly internal company goals for our employees to meet to help achieve our customer's metrics. When those goals are met a catered lunch is provided for the employees as a reward.
